Some of Carlyle's Opinions.

"Sir Walter Scott, a toothless re-lator of old wives' fables; Brougham, an eternal grinder of commonplace noise, like a man playing on a hurdy-gurdy; Coleridge, talking in a mand-lin sleep an infinite deal of nothing; Wadsworth, stooping to extract a spir-ital catnap from mu-brooms which were little better than toadstools; John Wilson, talking to presiding at Noctes, and painting haggies in food; Peel, a plausible fox; John Wilson Croker, an unchangeable hound; Lord John Russell, a turnip of good pig-ure; Lord Melbourne, a monkey; 'these be thy gods, O Israel!' Others occupied in undertakings as absurd as to seek to suck the moon out of the sky; this wind-bag yelping for liberty to the negro, and that other for the impement of prisons—all sham and imposture together; a giant lie which may soon go down to hell-fire."

Not Disconcerted.

A Galveston man deposited several thousand dollars in a local bank and drew on it as he needed it. The other day he happened to meet his banker, and that gentleman stopped, and said rather excitedly:

"You have overdrawn your account by several hundred dollars."

"Well, what of it? It is my account. I reckon I can do what I please with my own account. This is a free country."

"Yes, but you owe me several hundred dollars."

"Well, suppose I do. You owe me ten times as much for ever so long, and I don't make any fuss about it."

The depositor passed on, leaving the banker standing on the sidewalk in a very dazed condition of mind.

Slaven's Effervescent California Fruit Salt

Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced and skillful chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manu-factured by a special process known only to the proprietor. This preparation is a safe, simple and efficient medicine, or regu-lating the action of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recom-mended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Head-ache, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Bilious-ness, Constipation, Nausea, Sea sickness, Kidney and Liver troubles, Over-indulgence either in eating or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Scrofulous Diseases, it has no equal. It removes all eruptions from the skin and uses a cooling and invigorating effect on the system. The "FRUIT SALT" is entirely different from any of the effervescent Salts or Sodas preparations. In the market, being manu-factured from Fruit. For sale by Geo. H. Douglas, Carson City, Nevada.

The Famous Opera Singers.

Annie Louise Carey and Clara Louise Kellogg are beyond question the most famous opera singers of modern times. In fact they have been universally acknowledged to be the leaders of their profession, as well as ladies of large experience and particularly good taste. They have probably traveled more extensively than any ladies on the stage, and, as a consequence, have had excellent opportunities of judging of the merit of different countries and their productions. It is certainly a very great credit to California and the balmy semi-tropical climate of the Pacific, to have had them pronounce Slaven's Yosemite Cologene by far the best they have ever used in any country. For sale by Geburn & Shoemaker, Reno, Nevada.

Woman's Wisdom.

She insists that it is more important that her family shall be kept in full health than that she should have all the fashionable dresses and styles of the times. She therefore sees to it that each member of her family is supplied with enough "Pop Bitters," at the first appearance of any symptoms of ill health, to prevent it of sickness, with its attendant expenses care and anxiety. All women should exercise their wisdom in this way.—Ed.

Ask your-selves if you can afford for the sake of saving a few cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bot-tles were sold the past year. It relieves croup, and whooping cough, at once. Mothers do not be without it. For lame-back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Geburn & Shoemaker, drug-gists, Reno, Nevada. nov-ecod-daw

STATE FINANCES.

The GAZETTE has expressed surprise that some official showing is not made to stop the clamor about Nevada's bankruptcy. The Silver State comments upon the GAZETTE's idea and adds its own theory of our financial condition. The GAZETTE publishes it in the hope that it may at last receive some proper attention from the State officers. That paper says:

According to the statement of the Board of Examiners published in the Carson papers, there are in the several funds, coin and bonds amounting in round numbers, to $770,000. This would imply that the State is in a healthy financial condition, but people who pay any attention whatever to the matter are aware that $380,000 of the bonds, which appear as assets in the newspaper statement, is due from the State to the School Fund. Deducting this $380,000 from $772,000, the total amount said to be in the Treasury, leaves $392,000. What proportion of this amount belongs to the School Fund does not appear in the statement, but it can not be much less than $250,000, no part of which is applicable to the payment of the expenses of the State Government. This leaves, say $142,000, which includes, according to the statement, $134,000 in paid coin vouchers not returned to the Controller, leaving $8,000 or $15,000 in the Treasury for the payment of the current expenses of the State, which owes the School Fund $380,000. This showing may be erroneous in some particulars, but from the figures published in the Carson papers it is difficult to arrive at any other conclusion. Now, as we understand it, what money is left in the School Fund is to be borrowed on another irremediable bond, to defray the expenses of the Government and build a lunatic asylum at Reno. Then the School Fund, which ought to contain over $600,000 in coin, will be depleted, and instead will have that amount in irremediable bonds. Happily, however, Nevada is blessed with a Controller who encourages the dear people by telling them, while the school moneys are being used to pay the expenses of the State Government, that by borrowing from the School Fund they incur a mere nominal debt.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Nearly all of the religious periodicals in the United States have lately published a long article headed, "The True Test—The Merits of Religion, Government, Persons and Things must Rest upon a Basis of Worth." The first paragraph is as follows: "The true test of any religion is the effect it produces upon the lives of those who profess it. In this age of the world men are not judged by what they claim to be able to do, but by what they can do; not by what they are reputed to be, but by what they are. Here is where the religion of our own country rises superior to the faith of Mohammedan or Hindoo lands." A column is filled with that kind of matter, and then the article proceeds to apply its arguments to a certain patent medicine, but with no mark to indicate that it is a paid advertisement.

The reverend scribblers are improving. Having reached the star local stage they may yet hope to become competent local reporters. The grub makes the butterfly.

Following is an extract from Hon. C. N. Harris' oration in Carson on Memorial Day.—"Nature annually exemplifies the resurrection, and so teaches us the doctrine of after life. Who shall say that, as we strew these lowly mounds with flowers, we do not in some sense commune with those who have gone before? It is a blessed thought, and a comforting speculation of the reason. But above all do we comfort and honor ourselves as we honor the country's dead? We therefore turn us, Comrades, good people, all, and visit these graves to place thereon the beautiful emblems of nature's immortality and tender memories: the spring flowers of love, affection and sacred, undying recollection.

Hazlett, the wandering typo, well-known to the printing fraternity everywhere as the "Pilgrim," has footed it over more of America than most people ever saw. He was looking rather sooty and weary the last time he visited the Comstock, but it seems he is still alive and moving on. The Grass Valley, (Cal.) Union says: Hazlett, the "Pilgrim" printer, made his latest appearance at Montebello, and was then contemplating a trip to Alaska and the North Pole. He has already taken in nearly all the other territory on this side of the continent.

If the Virginia Chronicle wants a flat footed Republican opinion as to the vote of Senator Jones in favor of Stanley Matthews, here it is: "The daily Index unqualifiedly condemns the vote. Matthews ought to have been unanimously rejected. Senator Jones in the interest of Nevada was specially called upon to vote against him.—Carson Index.

It is announced that County Commissioner Sheridan will shortly return to Virginia City. The Chronicle hopes for the sake of his own name and that of others' that his determination to return indicates that he feels that he can meet the accusation of the Grand Jury, and that he may be able to show that he is not guilty of the despicable offense with which he is charged.

The Sacramento Bee says the following is Conkling's commandment to the Republican party: "I am thy savior, thy Conkling, who brought thee out of the land of uncertainty and out of the house of despair. Thou shalt have no other rulers above me. Thou shalt not worship Blaine nor Garfield, but shalt tender thy undivided fealty to me."

In Paris false ears are a new manufacture for the toilet. Ladies who think they have ears place these artistic productions under luxuriant tresses of false hair, fasten them to the ears, and wear them for show. False hair, false teeth, false hips, false calves, false ears—what next?

The appointment of ex-Senator Bruce, of Mississippi, to the responsible position of Register of the Treasury is unanimously confirmed. The Democratic Senators behaved handsomely, they following the noble example of Gen. Lamar of Mississippi.

"Is the President to be only a mere appointment-clerk for Senators?" inquires the Syracuse Journal. To which the Buffalo Express replies: "Hush, hush! why, that is the very question at issue."

The Fritz inquest in San Francisco revealed the fact that Mrs. F. used to manacle and handcuff the Captain while she went out to the walking match. The practice was novel as well as binding.

They are already beginning to compute Conkling's wealth, and Roscoe is consoled by the journalistic assertion that he can live at Utica for $3,000 per year.

Hank Beecher and Ike Kallach were in Chicago recently. It is presumed that they met to swap notes.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

Secretary of War Lincoln and General McDowell have passed Kansas City en route west.

Ex-Governor Irwin has purchased the interest of his brother Brit Irwin, in the Empire stables, Yreka.

Ex-Senator Booth has declined the invitation to deliver the Fourth of July oration in Portland, Oregon, and ex-Senator Sargent has been invited instead.

Chief Clerk Adams of the House of Representatives, formerly Congressman from Kentucky, is the man charged with gambling away funds placed in his charge.

Colonel J. C. Logan, of the Governor's staff, and family will leave Oroville for Santa Rosa, having purchased an interest in the large woolen mills of that place.

Colonel Crocker, Superintendent Fillmore and other railroad men were royalty received at the junction of Texas, New Mexico and Mexican territory.

Grading on the Denver, Western and Pacific is completed between Denver and Longmont, and the track-laying has begun. The graders are at work on the line west of Longmont. It is not decided yet whether the line through the mountains will be a broad-gauge or a narrow-gauge. The road will be in operation from Denver to Longmont by September first.

Strange Suicide.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.

On May 24th a suicide was found on a vacant lot in the southern part of the city, shot through the head. At the inquest yesterday it transpired that he had left letters signed W. H. Ward, saying that he had recently killed F. B. Bates, of Salt Lake, and sent his trunk to Miss Lizzie Smyser, of Salt Lake, to whom Bates was affianced. It was also developed by letters, telegrams and photographs from Salt Lake that the suicide was Bates himself. His story as to his betrothal was true, but no adequate reason is assignable for his suicide and the strange post mortem hoax.

On the fair bosom, silver lake,
The white swan spreads his sail.
Erratum, for swan, in the last line, put "pelican," for there are no swans to speak of on this lake, but plenty of ducks, geese, gulls, "hag," pelicans, and others of that ilk. Yes, you should see this beautiful sheet of water this the morning sun; as smooth, as bright, morning, as it glistens and glimmers in
as fair and glossy as a maiden's mirror; unruffled save by its feathered or finny inhabitants; mirroring the mountain-and their wealth of trees, in its cool depths—(How is that?) The lake is twenty miles in length, by an average width of five miles. Its shores are bold, rugged and rock-bound, with numberless picturesque bays and bold headlands. Its waters are clear and pure as crystal, and the home of numberless trout, white fish and suckers.
The only known inlet is Pine creek, which runs into it from the west. In the spring freshets the trout go up Pine creek in great numbers, and are left, by the falling of the water, to
die. At times this now calm and peaceful lake puts on a different appect, and then she's grand. Last Saturday we had a fair example. It thundered, lightened and rained as if everything was going to rack. The thunder roared continuously, and the lightning flashed until the lake looked like a burning lake, and the wind arose and kicked up as nasty a sea as is ever necessary. On the east, south, and south-west sides of this lake there are heavy bodies of pine and fir timber, very easy of access, which the land and water scheme embraces, together with the irrigation of numberless acres of fine land in Honey Lake valley, which will make homes for thousands of families, and taken in connection with the N. & O. R. R., it surely is the most practical and profitable scheme, I've any knowledge of, on this coast, and will give employment to great numbers of men. On the north there is a splendid grazing country, and in fact, all through the timber the grass grows finely. There are only three ranches on the shores of the lake. Several years ago there were several fine meadows, but they are now submerged, the lake having risen several feet in the last few years, the cause of which is yet unexplained.
Capt. Merrill is going to put a boat on the lake; something we shall be highly pleased with, as we have nothing now but three water-soaked logs, which we pole around with much labor and wet feet. The work of sinking shafts is progressing finely. They find considerable loose boulders and large rocks, which are hard to get out of the shafts, they being wedged in so closely together. The shafts are down 15, 20 and 25 feet, and in the last we found washed gravel.
This is from Edwin Arnold's "Light of Asia."
"Lo! the dawn
Lo! the east flamed the first
Pines of beauteous dawn, poured forth Through floating folds of Night's black drapery.
High in the widening blue the herald star Paled to paler silver as there shot Brighter and brighter bars of rosy gleam Across the gray. Far off the shadowy hills saw the great sun
Before the world was waned.
And dawned their crowns of crimson;
Flower by flower fell the warm breath of morn
And 'twas a world their tender lids.
Over the spanned grass swept the swift footsteps of the lovely light.
Turning the tears of night to joyous gems."
And that's the way day breaks here very often. Oh! yes! to go from poetry to snakes! I forgot to tell you that we have a man (or devil) here who handles rattlesnakes as you would kittens.
We can never tell whether he has one in his hat or not. He sleeps in a
"bunk" beneath me, and I can, or imagine so, smell snakes all night. Pleasant, to say the least, eh? Ned.

EAGLE LAKE.

A Correspondent Describes What He Has Seen and What is Doing in That Region.

EAGLE LAKE, May 28.
"On thy fair bosom, silver lake,
The white swan spreads his sail."
Erratum, for swan, in the last line,
put "pelican," for there are no swans
to speak of on this lake, but plenty
of ducks, geese, gulls, "hag," pelicans,
and others of that ilk. Yes, you should see this beautiful sheet of water this
the morning sun; as smooth, as bright,
morning, as it glistens and glimmers in
as fair and glossy as a maiden's mirror;
unruffled save by its feathered or finny
inhabitants; mirroring the mountain-
and their wealth of trees, in its cool
depths—(How is that?) The lake is
twenty miles in length, by an average
are bold, rugged and rock-bound, with
numberless picturesque bays and bold
headlands. Its waters are clear and
pure as crystal, and the home of num-
berless trout, white fish and suckers.
The only known inlet is Pine creek,
which runs into it from the west. In the spring freshets the trout go up
die. At times this now calm and
peaceful lake puts on a different ap-
pect, and then she's grand. Last Saturday we had a fair example. It thundered, lightened and rained as
like a burning lake, and the wind
is ever necessary. On the east, south,
and south-west sides of this lake there
are heavy bodies of pine and fir tim-
gether with the irrigation of number-
less acres of fine land in Honey Lake
valley, which will make homes for
thousands of families, and taken in connection with the N. & O. R. R., it
profitable scheme, I've any knowledge
of, on this coast, and will give employment to great numbers of men. On
country, and in fact, all through the timber the grass grows finely. There are only three ranches on the shores
of the lake. Several years ago there
are now submerged, the lake having
risen several feet in the last few years,
the cause of which is yet unexplained.
but three water-soaked logs, which we
pole around with much labor and wet
feet. The work of sinking shafts is progressing finely. They find considerable loose boulders and large rocks,
which are hard to get out of the
together. The shafts are down 15, 20
and 25 feet, and in the last we found
washed gravel.
This is from Edwin Arnold's "Light
of Asia."
"Lo! the dawn
Lo! the east flamed the first
Pines of beauteous dawn, poured forth
Through floating folds of Night's black
drapery.
High in the widening blue the herald star
Paled to paler silver as there shot
Brighter and brighter bars of rosy gleam
Across the gray. Far off the shadowy hills
saw the great sun
Before the world was waned.
And dawned their crowns of crimson;
Flower by flower fell the warm breath of morn
And 'twas a world their tender lids.
Over the spanned grass swept the swift footsteps of the lovely light.
Turning the tears of night to joyous gems."
And that's the way day breaks here
very often. Oh! yes! to go from poetry
les rattlesnakes as you would kittens.
in his hat or not. He sleeps in a
"bunk" beneath me, and I can, or im-
ant, to say the least, eh? Ned.

A RURAL NASBY.

He Derives Amusement From The Mail and is Annoyed by an Illiterate Wife.

"Well, well," said a country postmaster, not far from Reno.
"This is a hell of a letter for Bill Wrinkle to be gettin'." He's been a writin' to a matrimonial bureau, 'an this postal card's the answer. Jest read this, boys, an' we'll josh 'im 'bout it. Oh, ho," said he, as he continued sorting the mail, "here's a card from Cy Wilkins what run away from Keziah Jones." Wonder what that duffer's got to say." He was reading intently, when a stranger came up to the window.
"Is there a postal card here for Peter Paul?"
"No, ther h'aint."
After the stranger had departed Nasby's wife said:
"Why, Jim, ther wuz a keerd fur that feller. I seen it."
"Will you g'long inter the house, Dod gast it, I hadn't read it yet.
Spose I'm goin' to give out postals 'fore I read 'em? What'n hell d'you know 'bout star routes anyhow? G'long now."

The New Salary Law.

On Monday, in Eureka, Judge Rives rendered his decision on the Salary Law passed by the Legislature of our State two years ago, and which went into effect on the first Monday of January last. The decision, according to the Sentinel, was rendered upon an agreed case to test the constitutionality of the law, and was in the form of a mandamus to compel the Auditor of the county to draw his warrant for the salary of the Treasurer for the months of January and February, 1881. The Judge decides the law constitutional, although he severely criticises it as being a piece of crude and indefinite legislation, and one which may puzzle Courts to construe. The objections made to the law as to its constitution-ality were that it was "special legislation, and that it embraces more than one subject under its single caption;" it was further urged that it was so indefinite as to be void for ambiguity.
All of these points the Court overruled, and now, until passed upon by a higher tribunal, the law is valid and of full force and effect.

The Carson Race Track.

Carson is making a large stir about his race track which has just been partly built on Treadway's ranch. It is impossible for a track to be properly completed in so short a time, and the assertion that several horses are expected from Reno to be trained on that track is probably a fruit of the Carson imagination.

The horses which are going from Reno are merely going for the purpose of trotting for the $250 purse on July 4th, and will return immediately thereafter.

Stox.

Sierra Nevada at 20 1/2 and the market strong looks something like business. There is considerable expectation on the streets over the stock boom. Even the "bulls" in Virginia are at a loss to give a reason for the activity of the market, and stand with mouths wide open, staring at the quotations, forgetting even the remark:
"I told you so." It is hinted that important developments are on the tapis and Mackay has come over to boss the job. Take the hints with grains of salt.

The Hoppers.

The six-legged army has made an assault all along the line. They are now swarming out of the sagebrush and attacking everything in sight.
The old Noy ranch is being riddled.
Mrs. Howard will cut 20 tons out of 300, and similar reports come from other regions. The purpose of these items in the GAZETTE is to warn ranchers, so that they may save as much as possible from the scourge.

Died.

This morning Geo. D. Fryer died in Carson City. Mr. Fryer was an old resident of Ormsby county and at one time kept the Ormsby House, later he was located across the track from the railroad depot where he kept a wholesale liquor store and saloon. His death resulted from a general infirm condition and the amputation of a toe.

Still Happy.

Ex-Detective O. T. Brown is now fairly settled in his new station as Secretary at the International Hotel on Centre street. He says Mayer keeps the best of everything, and O.
T. is consequently happy in his new birth.

GOOD SAMARITANS.

How They Cared for a Poor Demented Traveler.

GAZETTE readers will remember what was said recently about the poor demented creature Maggie E. English who was "waiting for the train." Rev. W. R. Jenvey took the poor creature under his care and after much persuasion induced her to take rest and nourishment. Miss English declared stoutly that she wanted to go East to some city. Superintendent A.
N. Towne of the C. P. R. R. was written, and replied immediately enclosing a pass to Ogden. He also endorsed Rev. Jenvey's application, and this was forwarded to Mr. Kimball of the U. P. R. R. The poor woman was furnished with some money and a bountiful lunch which will last the entire journey. The conductors from Reno also took a deep interest in her, and the people here were very prompt in granting all needed assistance.
When she reaches Chicago, Miss English goes by direction and recommendation to the Home for the Friendless.
This society is bound by its charter to take her in and care for her. Mr.
Jenvey and his associates have done a good work and have their reward.
May the poor forsaken one find as much kindness in Chicago as went out to her in Reno.

The Inventor Speaks.

Col. Larkin Richardson, an account of whose appliance for cages was recently published in the GAZETTE, says that the Bodie Free Press man don't know what he is talking about. The sage which Richardson claims, was never thought of by Charles Golding or any other Bodie man. Moreover, the irate Colonel declares that they can't make one of his cages in Bodie even if they have the model to work by. He is very indignant at the accusation brought against his character as an inventor.

Truckee Tidings.

Wilson W. Forrest was found dead in his room in Truckee, May 30th.

The Republican says E. J. Baldwin and A. McAbee have gone to Lake Tahoe, to remodel the Tallac House, better known as Yank's Station. It will surely be one of the best places around the lake.

The Moody stage line is doing well.
Joe Brogan is looking for laborers in Truckee. He has 6,000 cords of wood to cut.

An Unnatural M. Ther.

This morning a canary bird belonging to L. Abrahams, left her home and three helpless babes without any excuse beside an open door and the absence of her liege lord. Such conduct is very unbecoming to any respectable mother, and Abrahams will pay a suitable reward for the return of the lady to her sorrowing family. No possible excuse can be assigned for her flight, as she was well provided for, and it is feared she has gone to the bad.

The Boss Alfalfa.

Hans Marker has sent from P. N.
Marker's ranch, near Lovelock's, a sample of the alfalfa recently mentioned in the GAZETTE. The grass is 5 feet high and he ought to cut an unlimited quantity to the acre. Anybody who can show higher clover than that had better speak now or forever hold their peace.

Shooting Affray.

The grasshoppers are beginning on the printing office stairs, but they find it rather hard lunch. One of them picked up a GAZETTE joke in manuscript to-day, nib'led at it a little, and it went off. He exclaimed, "My God I am shot!" fell over and expired without a groan.

The Tourists.

The Boynton-Bender party has arrived in Yosemite Valley, and is now camped beside the principle hotel, and take their meals in the house. The boys think they are having a fine time, and the proprietor of the hotel thinks they are giving him a fine exhibition of Washoe galls.

D. Legates.

The delegates from Truckee Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F., to the Grand Lodge which meets in Fureka on June 7th, should read as follows: N. C.
Hammersmith, J. C. Baynes, J. G.
Laws, C. W. Jones, D. Lachman, J.
C. Smith and J. S. Shoemaker.

Good Enough.

A man commenced this morning the work of numbering the houses in Reno. This has long been needed, especially on the business streets. He will no doubt be encouraged by everybody.

noon for New York.

ward and W. S. Hobart went to Sierra City, Monday, for the purpose of looking up some mining interests near that place.

Police Court.

The Police Court is still occupied with the case of Parish vs. Berry. The case may possibly be finished to-day, but will go to the District Court at all events.

District Attorney Cositt has promised for three days to furnish an item for this paper, and there will shortly appear a very malignant and inexorable slander directed against him, unless the promise is fulfilled.

Serious Cutting Affray.

A serious and perhaps fatal cutting affray occurred at the Mechanics' Store this morning. It seems that times were dull and D. Peyser, the proprietor, had gone to Buntingville to attend to some business in that region.
Joe Wise thereupon proceeded to-day to cut down the prices of the large and varied stock, so that it is a question whether it will cripple Peyser or break him up entirely.

Steering Balloons.

London News.

If a solution of the problem of aerial navigation is ever to be found, it will probably be in the device of some modest inventor, who is content to let the winds have their own way within certain reasonable limits, instead of seeking, as most aeronautic enthusiasts have done, to battle their caprices by independent forces. Possibly Colonel Martin, a member of the "Balloons Society of Great Britain," who has just written a pamphlet on this subject, may be destined to achieve this happy result; for he stands, we believe, almost alone among professors of aerial navigation in making no pretense to do more than give to the motion of the balloons a slightly oblique direction equal to taking within six points of the wind. This is to be achieved by the simple apparatus which he describes for concentrating and directing part of the force of the air current at will on either side of the balloon, which at the same time is prevented from gyrating. The importance of ballooning in war is now generally recognized; and it is clearly capable of many valuable and scientific uses, including the aiding of researches in the arctic and antarctic regions. Colonel Martin's reasonable claims are therefore well worthy of attention.

Japanese Postal System.

N. Y. Sun.

The postoffice system in Japan, which was established about nine years ago, seems, according to the latest report of the Japanese Postmaster General, to be a great success. The total revenue during the last fiscal year amounted to 1,173,900 yen. The service is thus self-supporting. The aggregate number of letters, newspapers, books, etc., carried was 68,914,782. The aggregate length of the mail routes was in English miles 42,265. The total number of postoffices was 4,877. Mails have been established between Yokohama and San Francisco and letters are carried to Hong Kong eight times in each month. The number of postmasters is 5,102, and of letter carriers 2,499. Rewards were paid to 124 mail carriers who saved the mail from loss. Mail routes by sea and land had been established in fifteen ports.

The Public Domain.

National Tribune.

Commissioner Williamson, of the General Land Office, in his forthcoming report, states the number of acres of public domain surveyed at 15,696,253; private surveys at 952,157 acres. This is an increase over the previous year of 7,253,471 acres. The number of acres of public domain surveyed up to this fiscal year is stated as 752,557,19; yet to be surveyed 1,063,231,737. Lands were disposed of as follows during the year: Homestead entry, 6,045,570 acres; timber culture, 2,196,184 acres; agricultural college grant, 1,190 acres; sections entered with military and land warrants, 88,522 acres; swamp lands patented to States, 3,757,888 acres; lands certified for railroad purposes, 1,157,375 acres.

Missouri Horses for Garfield.

Kansas City Times.

Judge Advocate-General D. G. Swain of the United States Army has been in the city. He inspected several stables to secure a pair of horses worthy to haul the President's family. None were found, but an order was let with a prominent livery stable man on Wyandotte street to look for a suitable pair. "Let them be seven-year-olds, high, sound, black or bay," were the cautious directions. Besides the purchase of the carriage horses a saddle horse for the President's use is also to be bought here. There have been no figures or limit to the price, but to just get the right kind of horse is the sole requisite.
